Get Well Wishes to Al Thompson!

Hello Kenosha HOG!

Big thanks to everyone who sold raffle tickets. It was very exciting to sell out! If you haven't heard, thirty minutes before the drawing, I was taking up a collection to buy the last envelope, and Wanda beat me to it!

Our winners all seemed very excited, too. If you came to Uke's, and got any good pictures, please share them with me.

Since our last meeting, the Tomahawk Fall Ride happened. If you weren't there, you missed one of the best gatherings of the season. A small band of rogue HOGs even camped out in the wilderness, on unclaimed land. We may have even fought off a bear. Or a possum.

The roads were full of motorcycles, and we rode some very scenic routes to and from the get-together. Bikers owned the Northwoods!

On the way, we only got a little wet, but I learned how to stop the rain in two hours. Rent a hotel room for the night, unload your bike, shower and change into dry clothes. The sun will come out before you can find the hotel dryer.

Looking forward to some awesome rides this month, too. Fall Colors, Holy Hill, Pork Chop Ride, Fish Boil, and others. If you haven't checked out the online calendar, now would be a good time. See you out there!

Randy

Sympathy To:

Amy Frederick, her mother Ruth Frederick passed away.

Our former member, Cynthia (Cindi) Holcomb's family, Cindi passed away on September 10, 2015.

Hi Everyone,

It is getting a little chillier, but still great riding weather. Ask the Motorclothes department about the great heated gear we have available! Keith and Nanc used it during the Jack Daniels/Smoky Mountain Ride and were extremely impressed with how warm it kept them and how thin it felt under their clothes. We are going to our winter hours (boo!) starting October 5th: Mon – Fri 10am – 6pm, Sat 9am – 5pm & Sun 10am – 3pm. Service is taking reservations for winter storage, but we will have plenty of space for chapter members. Same deal as last year, Free if you spend $750 on parts and/or labor during the storage period or $295, drop off after Nov. 1st. We are having a Halloween Party on Oct. 31st so decide on your costume now! Also, bring the kids & grandkids to do a little trick or treating through the departments and grab some lunch!

Keep Riding!
